X. Placement Assistance

As part of placement support for all our short term courses, we normally take the following steps:-

- (i) Invite companies for campus placement / Arrange off campus interviews.
- (ii) Forward student's biodata to various companies for consideration.
- (iii) Interact with our alumni working in good companies / self employed for job opportunities and direct our students to them.
- (iv) Allow the previous batch non-placed students to attend campus programs along with our current batch subject to conditions.
- (v) Register all candidates with the National Career Service (NCS) Portal of Ministry of labor.
- (vi) Write to industries, Govt. departments and other organizations to consider NIELIT students.

The eligibility criteria, if any, to attend the campus / off campus interviews by various companies, will be the sole decision of the respective company.
