MESSAGE

It gives me great pleasure to present the 22nd Annual Report of National Institute of Electronics and Information Technology (NIELIT) together with the Audited Statement of Accounts and Auditor's Report for the year 2016-17.

Digital empowerment of Citizens, is one of the key vision area of 'Digital India' program, because advances in the field of Electronics, Communication and Information Technology has touched every aspect of human life. NIELIT has embarked on to realize this vision of Government of India, to build a digitally empowered Society through its capacity building and skill development initiatives.

We are working towards transforming India into a digitally empowered nation, in which all government services, both at central and state level, be digitally available to every citizen of this country. Digital ecosystem empowers the poor and underprivileged in a big way and enables digital delivery of Government services, in a cost-effective manner. But the success of this Digital ecosystem is mired by the security and technological challenges. In this context, NIELIT is equitably poised to address these challenges through its various skilling initiatives in the area of Data security, Cyber security, eWaste, Cloud Computing, IPR etc.

I am happy for the initiatives taken by NIELIT under Skill India and Digital India programmes of Govt. of India, which is potentially setting up the stage for scaling up Indian economy to a 'Trillion Dollar economy'.

It is also envisaged that digital economy would create millions of jobs in Electronics, Communication and Information Technology. Here, NIELIT have a key role to play in developing human resource with its PAN INDIA presence.

I wish NIELIT for its all-round growth and greater success in its future endeavors.

MESSAGE

Digital India Mission of our Nation, as envisioned by Honourable Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, is an endeavour of imparting low-cost world class technology to each of the 1.25 billion citizens in the country. Our Nation is well on course to attain the vision of creating a Digital India and it is being hailed across the globe. The aspirational urge of the citizens of India is driving our digital ecosystem in a phenomenal way. The Government is committed towards creating a conducive ecosystem to further the attainment of the objective of Digital India. Moreover, Digital India Programme has become a cornerstone for a wide gamut of initiatives and programmes of the Government of India such as Skill India, Stand-up-India, Start up India, Make-in-India, Smart Cities Mission etc.

In this context, National Institute of Electronics and Information Technology (NIELIT) has made commendable efforts to bridge the 'Digital Divide' in the country by embracing global trends in this field such as Internet of Things (IoT), cyber forensics, e-waste management, mobile applications development, IPR etc.
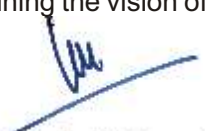

It is noteworthy that NIELIT has launched 70 mobile applications (Mobile Apps) in across eleven Indian languages to further the cause of Digital Literacy in the country especially in the rural areas. Skilling through the use of customized mobile apps is an innovative tool of imparting skilling as it virtually places the services directly in the hands of the user.

In addition to efforts made in the file of Digital Literacy, the need for skilling in basic tenets of cyber security has also increased manifold and the efforts being made by NIELIT to address this challenge is truly commendable.

The Jan-Dhan-Aadhaar-Mobile (JAM) Trinity along with the National Digital Payments Mission (DigiDhan) are providing significant boost to the creation of a Digital Economy in the country. The implementation of The Goods and Services Tax (GST) has also revolutionized the Indian taxation system. In order to promote the Digital Payment transaction and to support GST implementation in India, NIELIT has been making credible efforts in training of small and medium enterprises and traders on digital payment platforms as well as GST platform.

The Government is endeavouring to reform, perform and transform and Digital India programmes is enabling technological empowerment bridging the gap between haves and have-nots in the nation. I am sure in the years to come NIELIT would continue to achieve greater heights and play a vital role in attaining the vision of Digital India.

MESSAGE

Digital technologies have emerged as a catalyst for rapid economic growth and citizens' empowerment across India. The increased proliferation of Internet to the last mile coupled with increased demands for new products and services has enhanced skilling needs substantially. The youth of the country is required to be empowered through ICT skills to ensure the speedy implementation of 'Digital India' programme.

In this context, it gives me pleasure to note that NIELIT – the HRD arm of MeitY, is making sincere efforts to advance capacity building and skill development initiatives for all sections of the Society, especially for the rural masses, in IT and Electronics.

I appreciate the initiative of NIELIT to align its industry oriented Skill courses with the National Skill Qualification Framework (NSQF), which would further provide an impetus to the employment opportunities. I am also happy to note that NIELIT has diversified its repertoire of activities & courses and has adapted to the needs of the changing times. Many new activities and initiatives undertaken by NIELIT have translated into a commendable growth, both financially and physically.

It also gives me pleasure to learn that NIELIT is making efforts to provide training in GST for digital enablement of traders and small & medium enterprises. Not only will such training promote the cause of digital economy, it will also result in increased tax collection through better compliance.

I hope NIELIT will continue to establish itself as a leader in non-formal training programmes by embracing upcoming trends and technologies.

I wish NIELIT the best in its future endeavours.

Certainly, this big human asset, equipped with skills in latest & emerging technologies, will make India "FRONT RUNNER" amongst all the countries in the world. Information, Electronics & Communication Technology (IECT) is the area which holds a big chunk of the arena of these latest & emerging technological skills.

NIELIT, in the recent years, has spread its wings in different spheres of technology with the mission of strengthening its goals. Multifarious steps have been taken for capacity building and skill augmentation in the area of IECT . New schemes have been launched; new ventures have been made in line with the policies of Government of India. NIELIT is striving to achieve the unachieved, explore the unexplored and prove the unproved. It has widened its network of centres throughout the country with renewed vigor and determination to provide skills & digital literacy to all.

Many new initiatives have been undertaken, which includes capacity building measures, strengthening of internal mechanism. NIELIT is now known to be a prominent organisation which facilitates the recruitment of manpower especially technical manpower for many Ministries and Government Departments. There are various new emerging technologies, such as IoT, Cloud Computing, Big Data, Data Analytics, GIS, Cyber Security, Robotics etc, which are being focused upon for capacity building and skill development of the youth of the country. NIELIT has also made concerted efforts and achieved a lot in using the technology and web-based services for the benefit of stake-holders, including the student community.

In addition NIELIT is undertaking smart classroom projects in the country for making country's education system more robust and easily available to all. Skill Development and Capacity Building

Skills development is crucial for stimulating a sustainable development process and can make a contribution to facilitate the transition from the informal to the formal economy. The principles and values of decent work provide guidance for the design and delivery of skills development and are an effective way of efficiently managing socially just transitions. The National Policy on Skill Development is aimed towards empowering all individuals through improved skills, knowledge and nationally and internationally recognized qualifications to gain access to decent employment and to ensure India's competitiveness in the global market. NIELIT plays an important role for skilling of youth in the area of IECT, especially in rural sectors. The wide repertoire of NIELIT Courses includes: (a) Courses in the Formal Sector offered by the NIELIT Centres in association with State Universities/Technical Board such as ME/ M.Tech, BE/B.Tech, MCA, BCA programmes; Aurangabad Centre is also conducting PhD Program in the area of Electronics(b) Courses in the Non Formal Sector in IT, Hardware, Bio-informatics etc., under four levels, namely 'O' (Foundation); 'A' (Advance Diploma); 'B' (MCA equivalent); and 'C'

(M.Tech equivalent); Short Term Courses in niche areas; and IT Literacy Programmes for the proliferation of Digital Literacy in the country; besides specialized programmes in e-Governance targeted towards empowering the employees of the State Governments. In addition, NIELIT has also created expertise for the roll out of customized skill development programmes, as per specific needs of public and private sector firms.

Since 2012, efforts have been made to broaden the scope of courses being offered by NIELIT with the primary objective of empowering the rural youth and enhancing their livelihood in line with 'Digital India', 'Make in India' and 'Skill India' mission of Government of India. Emphasis has been made to ensure that any new course developed by NIELIT is in sync with industry requirements so that students undergoing training under these courses can be readily absorbed in the industry. It is pertinent to mention that NIELIT courses are categorized as Formal Sector and Non-Formal Sector courses. Under Non-Formal Sector courses, the NIELIT Centre also offers standardized short term courses besides long-term national level courses such as O, A, B, and C levels of courses. In order to ensure that NIELIT Courses are up to date and aligned with industry requirements, pro-active measures are being taken to align these courses with government regulations and framework. The O and A level courses have been aligned with the National Vocational Educational Qualification Framework (NVEQF) promulgated by AICTE and subsequent to subsuming of NVEQF with National Skills Qualifications Framework (NSQF), NIELIT is amongst the front-runners that has aligned 51 courses with NSQF.

In order to fulfil the primary objective of empowering the rural youth and enhancing their livelihood in line with 'Digital India', 'Make in India' and 'Skill India' mission of Government of India, NIELIT is making continuous efforts to broaden the scope of its courses

- ◆ 51 NIELIT courses are already aligned with National Skills Qualifications Framework (NSQF), which includes ESDM courses. Other courses under submission to NSDA.
- ◆ Courses have been retrofitted with Soft-Skills for greater employability.
- ◆ Syllabus Committees include members from Industry and Academia.
- ◆ Outcome based approach adopted with emphasis on hands-on training.

Diversification of Courses

Repertoire of NIELIT Courses has been diversified to a greater extent to embrace latest technological trends. Through diversification efforts have been made to tap technological potentials in emerging areas for promotion of Skill Development. The outlook of NIELIT has been streamlined to cater to the needs of rapidly changing environment taking into account the fast rate of obsolescence in the area of Electronics and Information Technology. The mushrooming of Private Computer Engineering Colleges has adversely affected the number of candidates opting of long term non formal courses in IT such as O/A Levels, which has necessitated diversification of activities in the area of Skill Development and Capacity Building. This has resulted admission to Short-term courses and revenue at a faster space. A thrust was given on a course which can enhance employability. The activities of NIELIT have also been substantially diversified in line with its aim and objectives and the same has fetched additional revenues besides brand building. Through diversification NIELIT has carved a niche name as a preferred capacity building organization for implementation of projects at State and National Levels.

Process Re-engineering

Re-engineering of legacy systems and processes was a daunting task, which has been achieved in NIELIT resulting in dramatic improvements in critical and contemporary measures of performance, such as cost, quality, services and speed. The process re-engineering or improvements are more than just tweaking to do things 'a bit better' or responding to a specific problem or event, it has been about systematic analyzing, identifying and evaluating options and solving challenges to make a significant difference. Much of its focus has been on removing non-value adding activities and costs and improving the efficiency and effectiveness of processes. The process re-engineering initiatives that NIELIT has adopted has resulted in stupendous growth – a feat that can be rarely matched by other similar organizations.

Using Technology as a Force Multiplier

NIELIT has effectively put technology to use to facilitate stakeholders and also inculcate greater transparency and accountability in the process. - In case of Chandigarh Centre

The Centre surrendered Land allotted by Municipal Corporation, Chandigarh (MCC) in January, 2002 and amount of Rs.43.24 lakh paid as 25% deposit against the said land was claimed as an appeal before the Chief Administrator, Chandigarh. The same was dismissed except for reducing the forfeiture amount from 25% to 15%. Centre is in process of filing fresh writ petition for refund of forfeited amount of Rs.43.24 lakh and the management is hopeful of favorable outcome of the dispute. However, keeping in view the concept of prudence, a provision of 50% of the total recoverable amount i.e. Rs.21,62,023/- has been made during the year as provision for Doubtful Debts.

The Centre had signed an MOU in July, 2003 with National Council for Promotion of Urdu Language, New Delhi(NCPUL), for implementing one year course on Diploma in Computer Applications and Multilingual DTP. An amount of Rs.32.14 lakh is still receivable for the year 2006-07 due to certain objections by NCPUL in this regard. The matter is under correspondence with NCPUL and the management is reasonably hopeful of recovery of the said dues, however, considering the longevity of the dues, 50% of the total amount i.e. Rs.16,06,800/- has been provided as Provision for Doubtful Debts, during the year under review.
