Introduction to National Skills Qualifications Framework (NSQF)

The NSQF is a competency-based framework that organizes qualifications according to levels of knowledge, skills, and aptitude. It recognizes prior learning and promotes lifelong learning. The NSQF creates a dual system, providing more youth with skilling opportunities. Over 100 countries have adopted or are developing similar frameworks.

The NSQF resolves issues related to:

- Lack of uniformity in qualifications

- Equivalence of Degrees/Diplomas/Certificates

This promotes better employability and mobility for students. The NSQF framework ensures individuals acquire the desired competencies and are rewarded for acquiring additional skills, leading to more career and entrepreneurial opportunities.

NIELIT's NSQF Accreditation Scheme

NIELIT offers accreditation for a range of NSQF-aligned courses available at https://nielit.gov.in/content/nsqf to support the Skill India Mission and enhance the quality of skill education in India, aligning it with international standards. These courses are of varying durations and levels and all details are listed on the National Qualification Register available at https://www.nqr.gov.in/. Institutes/colleges can apply for accreditation to deliver these programs on their campuses. NIELIT conducts all examinations and do certifications of the NIELIT NSQF Courses.

Also, Institutions accredited by NIELIT or affiliated with AICTE/Universities offering similar programs can leverage a streamlined accreditation process for these courses. They can gain accreditation based on self-certification, eliminating the need for an inspection visit for certain courses.
